

Dr. Miyasaki is a Movement Disorders Neurologist at the University of Alberta, Edmonton, Canada. She is the Director of the Parkinson and Movement Disorders Program and the Founder and Co-Director of the Neuropalliative and Complex Symptoms Clinic. She is currently the Vice President of the American Academy of Neurology and a member of the Board of Directors for the Parkinson Foundation. Dr. Miyasaki has been involved in palliative care for Parkinson Disease since 2005. Her research interests include the carer experience with chronic illnesses and equity in access to advanced therapies in movement disorders.